The Broken Word.

Walter Champ in Illustrated Kentuckian.
CHAPTER I.

The soft light which gleamed through the rose-colored globes in the Goodthyngs home revealed looks of ill-concealed anxiety on the handsome face of Herbert Heartease as he sat in the Oriental parlor awaiting the coming of Gladys Goodthyngs. The mirror on the mantel reflected the Mermets which he had sent her that morning, and on the table was the latest novel for which he had heard her express a wish. Impatiently he toyed with an embroidered sofa pillow. Would she ever come? It seemed an age since 11 last night.

CHAPTER II.

The curtains of the door were pushed aside and a faint perfume permeated the room. Instinctively Herbert Heartease lifted his eyes from the pages of the novel and saw Gladys Goodthyngs—a vision of loveliness in violet silk—standing in the doorway. There were twin blushes and a lingering handclasp, then a tete-a-tete in the "cozy corner." Looking volumes with his eyes, Herbert sighed and stammered: "Miss G-G-Goodthyngs, er-er G-G-Gladys, I-I-I love you, be m-m-mine!" The blushing maiden coyly turned her face from him and shook her head.

CHAPTER III.

The painful silence was broken by a sigh from Gladys Goodthyngs as she withdrew her hand from the grasp of Herbert Heartease. "Alas," she said, "I cannot trust you." Thrice Herbert attempted to speak, but his tongue refused to do his bidding. After one supreme effort he said: "W-W-Why, G-G-Gladys? I-I-I love you m-m-madly!" Gladys Goodthyngs sighed and said, "Yes but you break your word even when you vow constancy." In a moment Herbert Heartease was filled with rage and speakable and passed from the house into the night.

THE GRAND OPERA SEASON.

The repertoire for the engagement of the Grau Grand Opera Co., in Cincinnati, has been changed slightly. "The Barber of Seville" was sung last night before a brilliant audience, and "Lohengrin" will be sung in magnificent style to-night by a famous cast. "Mignon" with Miles, DeLussan, Olitzka and Suzanne Adams and MM. Salignac, Queyia, Dufrieche, Menx and Plancon in the cast, will be sung instead of "Faust" at the matinee to-morrow. "Faust" will be sung to-morrow night by MMes. Sembrich, Bauermeister, Olitzka, MM. Saleza, Campanari, Menx, and Edouard de Reszke, and others. The prices will be: Lower floor, $4, $3; first balcony, $3, $2; gallery, $1.50.

A party of ten or more Paris people will leave this morning to attend the opera to-night and to-morrow afternoon.

The Elmira (N. Y.) Morning Advertiser says of Russell's Comedians, which come to the Paris Grand next Friday night, the 17th: "Russell's comedians drew a remarkably fine house last evening. The most exacting found something excellent in every number of the program. One who attends the performance of this company expecting to hear the best vaudeville and nothing else will not be disappointed, for there is a remarkable amount of ability among the performers. Hossier's balancing was of the highest class. Mazier and Cooley, in eccentric comedy and buck dancing, were very good. Leonzo, the juggler, did some new things. The contortionist, the brothers Zilla, Parentello and Pico, as the frog and yellow kid, were very good. Lillian Fletcher sang and danced prettily. Berry and Hughes are an unequalled pair of musical comedians. The Irish comedy duet by the Pattens, John and Eunice, made a great hit. The performance is continuous, the stage setting admirable and the costumes satisfactory. The orchestra deserves special mention for its excellence."

Mrs. Washington McLean's now famous Dewey parrot is to become a part of the new Dewey home establishment. It has become known that the new trick which the bird learned in honor of the admiral's home-coming weeks ago was taught by Mrs. Mildred Hazen, the admiral's fiancée. The parrot, which has been brought back to town from the country, still calls out cordially every time the admiral visits the McLean mansion: "Hello, George; hello, Dewey; walk in, walk in." The bird has become more prized than ever by Mrs. Hazen, and after her marriage to the admiral the bird will be removed to the Dewey residence in Rhode Island avenue.

MILLERSBURG.

News Notes Gathered In And About The Burg.

McIntyre & McClintock shipped two double deck cars of hogs to Newport News and two cars to Cincinnati Wednesday.

Mrs. R. A. Jennings, of Lexington, and Mrs. Hart Cushman, of Flemingsburg, are guests of Mrs. Chas. Darnell.

Mrs. W. V. Shaw returned yesterday from a visit to Butler.

Mrs. A. T. Forsyth, of Paris, was the guest of T. M. Purnell and family Tuesday.

Mrs. C. T. Varnon, who has been the guest of her sisters Misses Mattie and Gene Layson, returned to Mexico, Mo., Tuesday.

Mrs. Ida Rogers, of Paris, has been the guest of her parents here the past week.

Dr. Hoffman returned Monday from a visit to Covington with his brother and much improved in health.

O. A. Kendal will leave Saturday for Texas with stock for Harry Groom.

Sam'l Proctor and wife have returned from a visit to Shelby County.

Judge Webb, of Paris, was here Tuesday on business.

Misses Warford and Armstrong, of Hamilton College, were home Tuesday and Wednesday to attend the Marr-Champ wedding.

Mrs. Corner, of Winchester, brought her sons here Wednesday to attend the Training School.

Mr. and Mrs. Kader Allen, of Winchester, was the guest of her mother Wednesday.

Messrs. Chas. Martin, Wallace Shannon and Sanford Allen and Miss Lizzie Allen, went to Owingsville Thursday to attend the wedding of Mr. Royce Allen and Miss Hughes.

Mr. Royce Allen, of Millersburg, and Miss Nannie B. Hughes, of Owingsville, were married yesterday afternoon at one o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is a lovely lady, and very popular in Bath county. The groom is a well known and respected citizen of this place and is a most excellent gentleman. They will make their home in this city.

KENTUCKIANS will see the novelty of two Governors being inaugurated on the same day—on December 12th. Senator Goebel and Gen. Taylor both announce that they are elected and will be inaugurated on that day.

Farmer Fahstock thinks he owns the stock he is so proud of. But as a matter of fact the stock owns him. He is the humble servant of horse, cow and pig. He looks after them better than he looks after himself, and feeds them before he feeds himself. That is why it so often happens that just about the time that Farmer Fahstock has reached the place where he can take things easy, he breaks down.

No class of people have been more quickly appreciative of the tonic properties of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery than farmers and stock raisers. They have found it prevents as well as cures disease. It keeps the stomach in healthy operation, stimulates the organs of digestion and nutrition and increases the secretions of the blood-making glands. The use of "Golden Medical Discovery" at seasons when the strain of work is greatest, keeps the system in perfect working order and prevents the break down which comes from over drafts on the strength.

"I used ten bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and several vials of his Pleasant Pellets a year ago this spring, and have had no trouble with indigestion since," writes Mr. W. T. Thompson, of Townsend, Broadwater Co., Montana. "Words fail to tell how thankful I am for the relief, as I had suffered so much and it seemed that the doctors could do me no good. I got down in weight to 125 pounds, and was not able to work at all. Now I weigh nearly 160 and can do a day's work on the farm. I have recommended your medicines to several, and shall always have a good word to say for Dr. Pierce and his medicines."

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant. A single item of medical knowledge when life is at stake has a value past computation. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser has 1000 pages of priceless paragraphs. This great work is sent absolutely free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper-bound edition, or 31 stamps for edition in cloth. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE HOSPITAL SHIP.

Lady Randolph Churchill Makes a Statement to the American Friends of Great Britain in Regard to the Project.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Lady Randolph Churchill made Wednesday the following statement to American friends with regard to the project of American women in England fitting out a hospital ship for use in South African waters: "The time for fitting out the Maine is so brief that I am glad to avail myself of the opportunity to set the project fairly before the American people. The interest manifested by Americans has already taken such tangible form from New York to San Francisco that I am sure an intimation that with the remaining work
there is to do must be done immediately will spur the American public into a ready response to our needs.

"There is but one motive, one reason,
for the project of sending a hospital ship to the Cape. We have had oratory and societies for the promotion of Anglo-American friendship. This is the golden opportunity to put that expression of good will into tangible form. It is especially the province of American women to promote this cause, but it is woman's function to foster and nourish the suffering.
American people are more adept at it,
we believe, than others.

"The Maine is to be essentially an American women's ship. We are not to aid only the wounded, but are to show the world that American women can do that good work better than any one else can do it. I am going to the cape in the Maine not because my son is there, for he will be a thousand miles away, but because I want the generous efforts of American contributors to be carried out under the personal supervision of a member of the executive committee.

"I am going because I think I may prevent any kind of friction between the American nurses whom Mrs. Whitelaw Reid is sending out on Saturday and the British officials, in case such friction should arise. I contribute that much time and service gladly, and all our committee would do the same.
The Maine will be a success, and we hope American contributions, already given so generously, will within the next few days insure that success beyond a doubt."

WHEATON AT SAN FABIAN.

Gen. MacArthur Begins His Advance Towards Tarlac—Gen. Lawton Resumes
His March Wednesday.

MANILA, Nov. 9.—Gen. Wheaton's orders to land at or near San Fabian, a fishing village 30 miles northeast of Dagupan. The insurgent force there only numbered about 300 men entrenched, whereas at Dagupan, there are some thousands of insurgents and five miles of strong trenches. The Mounts river is blockaded. Gen.
Wheaton was supposed to have landed Tuesday, though communication with him is not expected until Wednesday.
The weather has been good since he started and he should have been able to take the trenches without great loss of life.

From San Fabian Gen. Wheaton can control the roads of escape from Tarlac to the northeast, making a junction with Gen. Lawton. Gen. MacArthur will begin his advance towards Tarlac Tuesday night. Gen. Lawton will resume his advance Wednesday,
though in the face of great difficulties,
rains in that district having destroyed
all the bridges in the vicinity, including several the engineers built for the movement.

Gen. Lawton has been working hard for several days to get rations forward. The 35th regiment reinforces him Wednesday.

A force of 300 insurgents attacked
the 4th cavalry Monday night, making three futile charges and losing three men. The Americans lost none.

The first raft across the ferry at Cabanatuan was carried away by the cavalry current. It had 16 men of the 3d cavalry on board, with their horses,
but only one of them was drowned.

MANILA, Nov. 9.—Gen. MacArthur has occupied Malabacat. His entire line, including the 12th, 17th and 19th
infantry, and part of the 4th cavalry, is extended three miles in front of Angeles, in a good tactical position. Maj.
Bell took Malabacat. Being ordered to reconnoiter Tuesday until he located
the enemy, he pushed into the town,
driving out two companies of insurgents and killing several Filipino officers. The Americans suffered no loss.

First Degree Murder.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 9.—Ransom
C. Wiltse, an inmate of the soldiers'
home, was Wednesday night found guilty of murder in the first degree
and will probably receive his sentence on Saturday. Wiltse was on trial for poisoning Mrs. Mary Edgar on the night of June 7, the drug being administered in a pill of beer.

Died of His Injuries.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.—Oscar Dietz, the 12-year-old boy who was shot by one of a crowd of 50 hoodlum Negroes
Tuesday evening, died at the city hospital Wednesday night. He was too weak Wednesday to make a deposition, but it is said he indicated to the police the Negro who fired the shot that caused his death. Wesley Brown, Alex. Campbell, Levin D. Shields and Alex. Smith, all colored, were held without bail for a hearing three weeks hence on the charge of causing the boy's death.

THE ORIGIN OF GRINGO.

It is the Name Given by Mexicans to Americans Because of a Song

All the way from California comes a little story of the origin of "gringo,"
the name given by the Mexicans to all English and Americans. The writer, who recently returned from a trip
through Mexico, says:

"While in Guaymas I met a sea captain by the name of Bruce, then commander of the schooner La Union. He asked me if I would like to take a trip with him to a small seaport village called Ajavampo, 65 miles down the Gulf of California, near the mouth of both the Mayo and Yaqui rivers. We had been on shore probably half an hour when we heard that the natives were celebrating the anniversary of a saint, and were having a great time. I invited the captain to accompany me to see it, and the host welcomed me cordially and told me to bring in my companion, 'el gringo.'"

"We were then introduced to the heads of the families, and were politely told to make ourselves at home. I drifted away from the captain and sat down by an old lady, whose name I learned was Fabiana Murrieta de Farrel. She stated that she was 94 years old and had been married to a 'gringo' 32 years. She then explained why the Americans were called 'gringos,' as follows:

"About the year '10 (meaning 1810),
she began, a great many of us, then, of course, girls, were surprised to see a great crowd coming ashore in some boats from a buque (meaning a ship)
in the port of Guaymas and singing a song that my husband taught me to pronounce. That was 'Green Grows the Meadows.' Of course, all we girls could catch were the first two sentences, 'green grows.' Therefore,
when we saw them walking in groups
we christened them 'gringos,' and there you have the origin of the word."

A Parisian has invented a machine
by which, among other things, he can split a human hair lengthwise into 32 strips.

GORILLA LACKS CULTURE.

The Manlike Animals Have Very Short Thumbs, Which They Cannot Twiddle.

The gorilla and chimpanzee, which belong to the higher order of apes, have many points of resemblance to man, but there is one thing they cannot do—that is, twiddle their thumbs, says an exchange. In the gorilla the thumb is short and does not reach much beyond the bottom of the first joint of the forefinger. It is very much restricted in its movements, and the animal can neither twiddle his thumbs
nor turn them round so that the tips describe a circle. There are the same number of bones in the hand of a gorilla as in the hand of man, but the thumbs of the monkey have no separate flexor or bending muscle. This is why a monkey always keeps the thumb on the same side as the fingers and never bends it round any object that may be grasped. In the gorilla the web between the finger extends to the second joint, the finger tapers to the tips,
and there is a callosity on the knuckles
on which the animal rests when walking on all fours. There are many other strong points of resemblance between the ape and man, but—well, we wish to be charitable to our fellow man and will therefore drop the subject.

AFTER HIS FORTUNE.

Messenger, Hunted for Two Weeks, Evades Indian Pursuers and Brings Back the Money.

"There died in Kansas City, Kan., the other day," says the Kansas City Journal, "a quiet, unobtrusive, modest, and never boastful citizen. He came from a Pennsylvania regiment in 1864, and he became a messenger for the Holliday Express company, running from Leavenworth to Santa Fe. W. H.
Bridgens, the messenger referred to,
on one of his trips had $100,000 in greenbacks strapped about his person and secreted in his clothes. There was no one but him and the driver in charge of the coach, and for days they proceeded along their lonesome journey without seeing a human face. When yet many miles from Santa Fe they were overtaken by a howling band of Indians and a fierce battle was fought. Bridgens and his companion exhausted their ammunition and continued the fight with their knives. Finally they succeeded in unloosing their horses

from the stage, and, quickly mounting them, fled through the timber. The savages gave chase and succeeded in separating the two men, but did not capture either of them. Mr. Bridgens still retained his treasure, but he lost his way among the crags and canyons,
and it was more than two weeks before he found his way to the house of a white man. During all this time he subsisted entirely upon berries and herbs. His long absence caused his employers to believe that he had been robbed and killed by the Indians, and before his return they had made good
the money they had given up as lost.
When Mr. Bridgens returned with his precious burden still intact they were amazed, and so grateful were they that they presented their young agent with a handsome token of their appreciation."

SCHOOL FOR BLUSHING.

Paris Has an Institute for Teaching the Simulation of Sweet Embarrassment.

One of the latest novelties of Paris,
that city of novelties, is a school where blushing is taught. If there is any place where blushing has become a lost art, one would certainly think it was Paris, but the Parisians, on the other hand, declare that it is a result of Anglomaniya and the influence of the American girl. The young woman who plays golf or rides a bicycle in "rational"
in the freest camaraderie with her male friends is likely to acquire a self-poise which will make the flush of embarrassment a stranger to her cheeks, and the city where women are bicycling on the boulevard with their bare knees exposed has felt the necessity of a reaction. The classic grace and simplicity of the early years of the century, with their accompanying downcast eyes and simpers, are now in vogue again, and the maidens who have forgotten how to blush are going to school to learn the primitive art. They say it is easy enough to droop the eyes and affect bashfulness, but to call up a mantling color is as difficult as pulling eye teeth.

How the crimsoning flow of red blood to the pallid cheek is accomplished in these fine de siecle schools of deportment it is hard to imagine, unless it is that they have taken a page out of Du Maurier's joke book and emulate the society girl who surprised her friend by always blushing at the right time. "How can you manage it?"
asked the other girl, enviously. "Oh,
it is very easy," the expert blusher replied. "I simply think of something that makes me blush."

DUMAS OUTDONE.

Chinese Novels Are Said to Reach
the Utmost Limit of Elaboration.

It is a proof of the high degree of elaboration to which fiction literature in China has been carried that most of their novels are thickly interspersed with poems of all orders of merit.

No stronger evidence could be afforded of the fact that whatever they lack
it is not literary finish. If anything, they have this in excess.

These poems are introduced in a variety of ways. The hero sends one in a billet doux to the heroine, or he over-hears her singing one, or perhaps a poetic contest is struck up, the fine on defeat being generally the compulsory drinking of so many extra flagons of wine.

Wine drinking and versification almost invariably go together in Chinese novels, though whether they do so in real life we are unable to say.

Above all things, every man who sets up to be anything in the way of a hero in Chinese fiction must be prepared to extemporize by the ream in inimitable poetry.

NUPTIAL KNOTS

Engagements, Announcements And Solennizations Of The Marriage Vows.

MARR-CHAMP.

Standing before a semi-circular altar banked with beautiful palms and ferns, Miss Mary Champ, of Millersburg, and John Lawson Marr, of Huntington, West Virginia, plighted their troth forever and aye in the presence of a large assembly of friends in the Millersburg Presbyterian Church, Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

The wedding music was played in masterly style by Prof. A. M. Gutzzeit, of this city, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Laird, of Virginia, sweet and low music being played while the beautiful words were being spoken.

Master George Howard and pretty little Miss Louella Payne, (of Scott county), who received the church cards at the inner door, as ribbon bearers preceded the wedding party to the altar. Messrs. Joseph Mock, of Millersburg, and Chas. Blair, of Huntington, and Will Hite, of Huntington, and Banks Allen Neal, of Millersburg, ushers, started simultaneously from the side doors, and were met at the altar by Rev. Dr. Laird, the officiating minister, and Walter Champ, usher, who came up the center aisle. Mr. Marr, the groom, with the best man, Mr. Frank Archer, of Huntington, came up the North side aisle and were met in front of the minister by the bride and her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Champ, who gave her away. After the ceremony was performed the mother lifted the veil of the bride. Leaving the church Rev. Dr. Laird and Mrs. Champ followed the bride and groom, the best man and ushers and ribbon bearers following in turn.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Champ, and is an accomplished young lady who has been a leading figure in prominent circles wherever she has lived. Always stately, the bride was unusually handsome in a beautiful wedding gown of white moire silk, en train, trimmed with point lace, garnished with orange blossoms. She wore a long veil, caught up with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

The groom is a leading citizen of Huntington, West Virginia, where he holds large steamboat interests, and is popular with a wide circle of friends. They left immediately after the ceremony for Paris, where they took the L. & N. train for Lexington to start East for a wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Marr were the recipients of a large number of handsome presents, chosen with rare good taste. Several telegrams of congratulation were received from friends from a distance just before the wedding.

The wedding party was entertained at luncheon Tuesday night by the bride after the rehearsal at the church.

Invitations were issued to the marriage of Miss Bird Rogers, of Georgetown, and Mr. James Easley Lipscomb, of Danville, Va., which will be celebrated next Wednesday evening at six-thirty in the Presbyterian Church at Georgetown. Miss Fannie Rogers, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor, Willie Rogers, flower girl and Robert Bryan, page. The bridesmaids will be Misses Mary Bryan, Maunie Stone, Lillian Kelly and Martha Witherspoon. Mr. John Gaines will act as best man. The ushers will be Messrs. James Kenney, Will Graves, E. P. Moore and Harry Wood, of Louisville. Dr. F. F. Bryan, the bride's uncle, will give her away. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. W. O. Shewmaker. Mr. Albert Sleet will render the music assisted by Miss Virginia Chenaault. There will be a reception at the home of the bride for the bridal party. Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Bryan will entertain at cards on Monday evening in honor of Miss Rogers. On Tuesday evening, the 14th inst., Mrs. Jas. Y. Kells will entertain the bridal party.

A marriage license was issued Wednesday to Admural George Dewey and Mrs. Mildred Hazen. The age of the former is given as sixty-one and the latter as forty three, and both have been married once before. The marriage will occur next Tuesday or Wednesday or probably at an earlier day.

Chiquita, the midget who was on exhibition at the Elk's fair at Lexington, is to wed Major Mite, who is two feet and six inches tall, and weighs twenty pounds. The Major is twenty-two, and the bride is several years older.

Miss Nellie Scott, the lovely daughter of Mr. Chas. Scott, of Lexington, was married last evening at the Broadway Methodist Church, to Mr. John Stoll, a prominent young man of Lexington.

The marriage of Mr. E. Asher Ford and Miss Leona Whitt, both of Mt. Sterling, was solemnized yesterday at Ashland.

The World's Gold Output.

The recent report of the director of the mint says that one-half of the world's gold product for the last four hundred years has been produced within the last forty years. The total production of the world, from the discovery of America to the present time is, in round terms, $10,000,000,000, or, to be exact, $9,835,056,900, and of this amount $5,341,855,600, or over one-half, has been produced since 1890, and $2,540,260,400, or over one-fourth, since 1895. The average production prior to 1890 was about $12,000,000 per annum; from 1890 to 1895, about ten times that average per annum, and in 1899 is at the rate of $325,000,000 per annum.

J. H. Gay, of Clark, participated in the big Belle Meade shooting tournament near Nashville, Tenn., last week. He broke 99 blue rocks and killed 69 live birds without a miss, thus making a total of 158 consecutive shots without a miss.

Imperial spectacles and eyeglasses have perfect lenses, always perfectly centered and made of purest material, set in frames of the highest elasticity and consequently of greatest durability, united with the utmost lightness and elegance. When both frames and lenses are scientifically fitted by Dr. C. H. Bowen's system they always give satisfaction for they are perfect. Never buy cheap spectacles, nor of men who do not know how to fit them. You will get poorly adjusted spectacles, or poor, imperfect lenses, and are better off without any glasses than with either of these defects. Buy Imperial spectacles of a reliable, skillful dealer, and they will last longer without change and be cheapest in the end.

We have engaged the services of Dr. C. H. Bowen who will visit our store on the second and last Thursdays of each month and invite all to call and have their eyes examined, for which there is no charge. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

HE COULDN'T BE BLAMED.

Did Everything in His Power to Secure Support But Was Handicapped.

"I suppose it was a little cheeky," said the young man to the old fellow on the rear platform of the car, "but what are you going to do in such a case?"

"Yes, what are you going to do?" queried the old fellow, in reply, though having no knowledge of what was meant.

"I got up the courage to ask her hand in marriage and she murmured yes."

"They generally murmur,"

"Then to be in good form, I had to go and ask the old man's consent."

"Perfectly correct, young man—perfectly correct."

"I took a brace and walked in on him," continued the young man, "and in due time I had stated my case. He waited a decent length of time and then said I could have her."

"That was beautiful—beautiful."

"Yes, as far as it went. Yes, that was all right, but I wasn't through with him yet. I had to ask him if he'd lend me a hundred dollars to get married on. Wasn't no other way, you know."

"No, no other way," repeated the old fellow as he got a new brace for his back. "And he loaned it to you?"

"No. Threw me down with a dull thud."

"You don't say?"

"Did for me?" Yes, the whole thing is off, and I have loved and lost. I don't see where I'm to blame, though."

"Not a bit of it. You loved and wanted to marry; but it takes money to get married on. He had it, but wouldn't lend it. No money—no marriage. Plain as the nose on your face, and you're not a bit to blame. 'Put it that, young man, and cheer up and get a new hold with your teeth. You had to do it—had to do it—and anybody as sees you hadn't is a liar and a loss thief and doesn't stand up before the undersigned for three rounds.'—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THE ICE MACHINE'S PART.

At Last There Has Been a New Feature Introduced Into Uncle Tom's Cabin.

There is a new wrinkle in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" theatrical companies. One of them, which is ransacking the state of New Jersey for audiences, has hit upon the device of buying a refrigerating machine and using real blocks of ice in the scene in which Eliza, pursued by a pack of barking mongrels, crosses the river carrying in her arms a stuffed doll.

The ice-making machine has proved an enormous success. At the Ridgewood opera house, where the ice machine played a few evenings ago, a frantic crowd fought its way through the doors. At the first performance the ice machine was kept in the background. Several cakes were manufactured before the performance and placed on the green baize river. They were carefully sanded on the surface, so that when Eliza made her grand dash for liberty she would not turn undignified somersaults. The ice machine, however, had been so largely advertised that yokels wanted to see it. They sat in their places after the curtain descended upon the solemn death of Little Eva and howled for the ice machine to come out and show itself. The stage manager and a couple of deck hands had to carry it down to the footlights. Then they turned the handle and, amid uproarious applause, the machine produced a cake of real ice.

Since then a part has been written in the play for the ice machine. When the river scene opens a couple of southern speculators are discovered experimenting with the machine. They produce their ice, and not having any immediate use for it, they put it in the river, and it sits upon the river surface at proper intervals to accommodate Eliza's footsteps. A colored man comes out and sprinkles sand over the ice in full view of the audience.—Chicago Chronicle.

Under Two Flags.

"What a grand picture it must have been," remarked the boarder who had seen Dewey, "to have seen the Olympia steaming home, the stars and stripes on one mast and the homeward pennant on the other."

"Magnificent," echoed the man in black suspenders, "but think what a picture it would have been to have seen the stars and stripes on one mast and the baseball pennant on the other."—Chicago Evening News.

MILITIA CALLED.

Judge Toney, of Louisville, Issued Orders Allowing Brown Inspectors at Polling Places.

The Decree in Some Instances Contemptuously Ignored, and Judge Toney Called on Gov. Bradley to Enforce the Order, Which Was Done.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 8.—At 6 o'clock Tuesday evening Col. C. C. Mengel received orders from Gov. Bradley to send to the polls at once the Louisville Legion, which had been under arms at its armory all day in readiness for a call. Up to this time the election had been one of the quietest ever known here. The balloting proceeded all day without any disorder. A few arrests for alleged interference with voters were made, but there was less than the usual amount of friction between the workers for the respective candidates.

When the polls closed at 4 o'clock the inspectors representing the interests of the Brown ticket appeared and demanded admittance to watch the count. This was done under a mandatory injunction issued by Judge Toney, of the circuit court, shortly before noon, restraining the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown inspectors. About the middle of the afternoon the Republicans secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were threatened with interference.

In a number of places the inspectors were refused recognition and Gov. Bradley's order for troops to go to the polls was made upon a statement by Judge Toney reciting this state of affairs.

Judge Toney's letter to Gov. Bradley was as follows:

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.

Gov. W. O. Bradley, City, Sir—Two mandatory injunctions were today issued by me on the judges of the Jefferson circuit court, ordering election officers, at the election precincts to allow the inspectors for the Brown and republican tickets entrance to the voting precincts to witness and inspect the count. It has been represented to me that these injunctions are being contemptuously ignored and violated. I have issued the decree or judgment of law. I am not a ministerial officer and can not enforce it. I call your attention to the fact as chief executive of the state, that you may take such action to see that the laws are executed as you may deem proper under the circumstances.

Yours very respectfully,

STEFAN B. TONEY.

Judge Jefferson Circuit Court, Law and Equity Division.

The men were ready, and within a few minutes began to form about the armory. Belts were loaded up with ball cartridges, and every man had his bayonet fixed.

Col. Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since the regiment was placed in readiness for a call, assumed command. As soon as the order became known, Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and protested against the calling out of the troops, on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble, and that there was no occasion for action by the state authorities; that Judge Toney had not made any representations to him (the sheriff) as peace officer of the county; that there had not been any interference with his order.

Col. Mengel replied that he was acting under instructions from Gov. Bradley.

Shortly after 7 o'clock orders to march were given. Companies B, C and D swung into Main street and started on the double quick for the lower quarters of the city in the west end. They visited polling places en route and inquired into the treatment of the representatives of all the parties. Everything was found quiet, however, and the blue coats were marched back to headquarters. The only excitement noticeable was that occasioned by their presence. Meanwhile the count was proceeding in all the voting places of the city.

RECEIPTS OF THE FIGHT.

Jeffries and Sharkey Receive Their Share of the Gate Money—The Pictures Will Not Be a Fortune.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Jim Jeffries and Thos. Sharkey received their share of the gate receipts of the big fight Tuesday. The total receipts of the fight were $60,848. The fighters received two-thirds of this amount, or $44,560. As the winner, Jeffries received 75 per cent., or $33,420, and Sharkey's share was the remaining 25 per cent., or $11,140. Jeffries' share of the receipts is the largest ever received for winning a battle. Each fighter has a third interest in the pictures, and it is estimated at least $500,000 will be derived from this source.

Adm. Dewey Returns to Washington

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Adm. Dewey and his fiancée, Mrs. Mildred Hazen, left for Washington Tuesday. In the party also were Mrs. Washington McLean and Mrs. Ludlow, mother and sister, respectively, of Mrs. Hazen.

It All Depends on What England Will Do

PARIS, Nov. 8.—The Berlin correspondent of the Figaro says Emperor William is resolved to occupy Tiger Bay, south of Angola, on the west coast of South Africa, if England occupies Delagoa Bay.

THE SAMOAN GROUP.

The Partition of the Islands Closes a Long-Standing Controversy—We Get Tutuila and Other Small Islands.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Whatever plan Great Britain and Germany might agree upon, it was stipulated should be first submitted to the ratification of the United States. This was necessary as the change proposed could be made only by formal treaty, which would require the approval of the senate.

It is believed that the arrangement proposed now will be satisfactory to the state department. The United States is not concerned with the amount or character of the compensation that passes between the other nations. Besides retaining the coaling station of Pago Pago, acquiring the island of Tutuila, where on the harbor is located, and the three or four smaller islets in the vicinity, the United States will continue to enjoy by stipulation the privilege of trading with Apia under conditions equally as favorable as those now existing. The islets referred to are not of any particular importance from a commercial point of view, but it is deemed essential to control them politically in order to prevent smuggling.

The partition of the Samoan group of islands marks the close of a long-standing source of international controversy, and also brings about new territorial arrangements in the South Pacific.

In the early stage of the negotiations it was agreed that the United States should have the island of Tutuila, with its valuable harbor of Pago Pago, and the lesser islands of its coast, including the large islet of Manua. The negotiations then shifted to London to determine whether Germany or Great Britain should retain the two remaining islands of Upolu and Savaii. The nature of these later negotiations have been constantly communicated to Washington, although they have not reached the state department and it has been known for some days that in case Great Britain retired from Samoa, Germany would give as part compensation the large Solomon islands of Ysabel and Choiseul. These are near the British possessions in Australasia, being east of New Guinea. They are twice the size of the Samoan group, but the country is mountainous and the people warlike, many being cannibals. The area of all the German Solomon islands is 9,000 square miles, against 1,700 square miles for the entire Samoan group.

At the British and German embassies here the announcement of the close of the negotiations was received with much satisfaction.

A high diplomatic official said that the agreement was due mainly to the fact that German public sentiment was averse to retiring from Samoa, and yielding to this sentiment. Great Britain had solved the matter by taking an equivalent in territory elsewhere.

BERLIN, Nov. 9.—The Deutsche Zeitung, which harshly criticizes the agreement, says: "Everything beyond Tonga is far in excess of a fair price. Germany ought to have secured additional African rights."

The National Zeitung says: "The agreement is a success which is not impaired by the indemnity accorded for the renunciation of British rights which are as indisputable as the German."

The Neuste Nachrichten says: "The political importance lies in the fact that certain questions threatening the good understanding of Germany with England and America are disposed of."

The Post says: "The cry that Samoa has become German will find a joyful echo in German hearts."

The Boersen Zeitung says: "The American retention of Tutuila appears to make the agreement less valuable, because it is precisely the presence of Americans which has given rise to continual friction."

The Dewey Wedding

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The marriage ceremony, which will unite Adm. Dewey and Mrs. Hazen, will be performed at Mrs. McLean's residence. Only a family party, with a few intimate friends and several high officials, will witness the event. No authoritative information is obtainable as to the exact date for the wedding.

Cardinal Gibbons will be away from Washington for a week and it is believed that Archbishop Keane, a friend of the bride, will celebrate the marriage rites. The archbishop is out of the city.

Civil Marriage of Luz Diaz

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 9.—The civil marriage of Miss Luz Diaz, daughter of President Diaz, to Francisco Rinconon Gallardo, took place Wednesday evening at the city residence of the president, only the families of the contracting parties being present. The religious ceremony will occur Friday.

Embargo to Be Removed

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 9.—The Dominion government received a cablegram from the home authorities Wednesday stating that the embargo placed upon Canadian cattle entering Belgium would be removed on the 15th inst.

Grand Stands Burned

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 9.—The three grand stands on the Rochester Driving Park association grounds were totally destroyed by fire Wednesday evening, a loss of $25,000. This means the permanent closing of the famous track.

The New Explosive.

Thorite, the new explosive, has been distinguished itself by passing through a 4 inch Harveyized steel plate. If its success continues, it will make as great a record for itself in the military world as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has in the medical world. So far nothing has appeared which can equal this wonderful medicine in its speedy and permanent mastery of all diseases of the stomach, liver or kidneys. It's a good remedy to try when everything else has failed.

Matter of Length.

"How long should mourning gowns be worn by a widow of 22?" was the question that came sobbing through the mails. Now it comes to the sporting editor's day off, and the religious editor, therefore, was attending to the Side Talks with Young Persons. "There is no hard and fast rule," wrote the religious editor, confidently, "but they ought to come down to the boot tops, at least." This incident illustrates the occasional awkwardness of a newspaper standing as a bulwark of morals to the exclusion of everything else.—Detroit Journal.

Now Everybody Can Ride.

If you have any doubt about it, be it sure to read the advertisement of the John M. Smyth Co., Chicago, in this paper, in which they propose to sell a high-grade Top Buggy for $34.95. How they do it is a puzzle, but as the firm is one of the largest in the country and of the highest standing, that's their matter. Better find the advertisement now, while you think of it, and read it through carefully. The firm issues a Mammoth Catalogue, in which is listed "everything to eat, wear and use at lowest wholesale prices."

Its Origin.

"Hoot!" cried the owl over and anon. The fowls of the air and the beasts of the field stirred uneasily in their sleep and muttered maledictions.

"Why are they so angry?" asked the owl at last.

"They are envious, my child," replied the owl, "of my Scotch dialect. Hoot, hoot!"—Detroit Journal.

Delightfully Feminine.

Mother—I don't understand you at all. You are constantly praising Miss Whirly now, and you used to insist that you couldn't bear her.

Daughter—But I don't know then, mamma, that she was jealous of me. It is just too sweet of her.—Detroit Free Press.

Modern Science.

"Steam has rendered man inestimable service," remarked the observer of men and things, "and woman also, since it has enabled her to open her husband's letters without his ever knowing it."—Detroit Journal.

Some Are So Clever.

"Is it hard to propose to a girl?" asked the novice in affairs of the heart.

"Sometimes it is a good deal harder not to propose," returned the man of worldly experience, thoughtfully. "It's always well to be on your guard."—Chicago Post.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

DOCTORS INSIST that their patients use "5 DROPS" for RHEUMATISM, KIDNEY DISEASE etc. Read the following letters:

SWANSON RHEUMATIC CURE CO.: When I wrote you for a sample bottle of "5 DROPS" my wife was suffering terribly from Rheumatism and was very discouraged, as I had tried everything the doctors prescribed, even sending her to Richmond Springs, etc. My doctor is very much surprised at the progress my wife is making, and she is so well that she refused to keep her seamstress and is now doing her own sewing. The doctors insist on her taking "5 DROPS" and assure her that it is now only a matter of a few days and she will be entirely cured, and as we are very well known here, the "5 DROPS" is receiving considerable attention and praise.

Foul-Smelling Catarrh.

Catarrh is one of the most obstinate diseases, and hence the most difficult to get rid of. There is but one way to cure it. The disease is in the blood, and all the sprays, washes and inhaling mixtures in the world can have no permanent effect whatever upon it. Swift's Specific cures Catarrh permanently, for it is the only remedy which can reach the disease and force it from the blood.

Mr. B. P. McAllister, of Harrodsburg, Ky., had Catarrh for years. He writes: "I could see no improvement whatever, though I was constantly treated with sprays and washes, and different inhaling remedies. In fact, I could feel that each winter I was worse than the year previous. Finally, I was brought to my notice that Catarrh was a blood disease, and after thinking over the matter, I saw it was unreasonable to expect to be cured by remedies which only reached the surface. I then decided to try S. S. S., and after a few bottles were used, I noticed a perceptible improvement. Continuing the remedy, the disease was forced out of my system, and a complete cure was the result. I advise all who have this dreadful disease to abandon their local treatment, which has never done them any good, and take S. S. S., a remedy that can reach the disease and cure it."

To continue the wrong treatment for Catarrh is to continue to suffer. Swift's Specific is a real blood remedy, and cures obstinate, deep-seated diseases, which other remedies have no effect whatever upon. It promptly reaches Catarrh, and never fails to cure even the most aggravated cases.

S.S.S. For the Blood is Purely Vegetable, and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no dangerous minerals.

He Wasn't Joking.
"I had four days' growth of beard on my face when I struck a little town in northern Michigan," said the civil engineer. "I found a little coop of a barber shop near the depot, and I entered it to discover the barber sitting on a bench with his head in his hands. As he roused up I told him to get to work on me, but after looking me over he replied:

"If I shave you, you'll have to take the chances."

"What chances?" I asked.

"Well, I've been on a drunk for the last week and am just on the point of seeing rats. I may get through with it all right, and I may cut your head off."

"The man had a wild look and was all a-tremble," continued the engineer, "and, though he smiled as he talked, I saw that he wasn't joking. I went away without getting shaved and for the next two hours was busy making purchases. As I returned to the depot I looked in on the barber to see how he got along and found him hanging dead. Just what would have happened had he started to shave me I don't know, but I've always felt much obliged to the man for putting the case as plainly as he did."—Baltimore Herald.

Tried It With Kittens.

A little lady of 5 who dwells in Park Ridge has an ardent sympathy for superfluous kittens—that is, kittens which have to be drowned. Last week she discovered six wee balls of fur in the woodshed, and instantly the burning question was, "What shall we do with them?"

Her mother and father advocated the usual method of keeping one for Katherine and drowning the others. But little Katherine determined to thwart their plans. She had heard a story how a little baby was left in a basket on a doostep and how, with the light of dawn, the kind old couple took in the little foundling and reared it as their own child.

Katherine found in the cellar five little fruit baskets. Into each of these she put a kitten, and then, waiting until her mamma had lain down for her afternoon nap, she laid a basket on the doorstep of each of five houses whose owners she regarded as charitable.—Chicago News.

The Advantage of One Eye.

During the Spanish-American war a certain old colonel who had lost an eye at the battle of Gettysburg was very indignant because he was put aside as physically incapacitated when he applied for admission to one of the New York volunteer regiments.

Filled with wrath and chagrin, the colonel journeyed to Washington, bent on having a personal interview with the president. He succeeded in gaining an audience, and the president, after listening to his plea, said kindly: "But, my good Colonel J., you have only one eye!"

"Just so, sir," was the prompt rejoinder. "but can't you see the great advantage of my having only one eye? When I aim my gun, I shan't have to close the other!"

He fought at Santiago.

The Dean in His Nightshirt.

Hugh Pearson always spoke of Dean Stanley as the most absent minded man in the world. He was driving once with him into Palermo. He complained of feeling cold, and as Stanley had his traveling bag with him he advised him to put something extra on. He did so, and both resumed their papers. A loud laugh from some boys suddenly roused Pearson to the realization that Stanley was driving through the streets in his nightshirt, which he had put on over his coat in pure absence of mind.

Experience.

Messenger—Here's a package for you, sir.

Wederly—What is it?

Messenger—I'm not sure, sir, but I think it is a birthday present from your wife.

Wederly—Oh, very well! Just leave the bill, and I'll send a check for the amount around in the morning.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Lots of people claim heaven as their right and yet have not learned how to make any right use of the earth.—Keokuk Gate City.

Couldn't G-Ind Her Teeth In Sleep.

An eminent professor of psychology at Harvard was deeply interested in the case of an epileptic woman. Talking with her husband, he sought out premonitions and symptoms. And he asked this question, "Did you ever notice that your wife ground her teeth at night?"

To which the bereaved husband replied, "She never slept in them."—Boston Journal.

Absurd on the Face of It.

Hardacre—Wall, Maria, these city folks do things outrageously.

Mrs. Hardacre—What is it now, H?

Mr. Hardacre—Wall, jest look what's painted on that pal up there "Use For Fire Only." Now, who in creation could build a fire in a pal?—Chicago News.

Every Month

there are thousands of women who nearly suffer death from irregular menses. Sometimes the "period" comes too often—sometimes not often enough—sometimes the flow is too scant, and again it is too profuse. Each symptom shows that Nature needs help, and that there is trouble in the organs concerned. Be careful when in any of the above conditions. Don't take any and every nostrum advertised to cure female troubles.

BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR

is the one safe and sure medicine for irregular or painful menstruation. It cures all the ailments that are caused by irregularity, such as leucorrhoea, falling of the womb, nervousness; pains in the head, back, breasts, shoulders, sides, hips and limbs. By regulating the menses so that they occur every twenty-eighth day, all those aches disappear together. Just before your time comes, get a bottle and see how much good it will do you. Druggists sell it at $1.

Send for our free book, "Perfect Health for Women."
